JACOB AND BARBRA ZOOK FAMILY HISTORY

A short sketch of the ancestry of Jacob Zook and the record of his lineage.

Published by Clara Zook Mumaw, a granddaughter,
R. D. 2, Wooster, Ohio

June, 1962

Preface

After gathering dates for family record, the cousins and others desired to have it printed, and by encouragement I made an effort to get all the names of the descendants of my grandparents and have succeeded so far by the help of my cousins who I wish to thank very heartily for the help they have given me towards this work. It would have been impossible to have it completed without it.

I am your humble cousin,

Clara Belle Zook Mumaw

Explanation

The reader will readily understand the arrangement of the text. The descendants are grouped according to the four families of the second generation. This will aid you to locate the name of any particular one that you wish to look up. Some dates were not reported, therefore not recorded. The first figure represents the generation each name occupies in the family of Jacob and Barbra Zook, the second the place in each parents family.

Abbreviations, born, b; died, d; married, m; and generation, gen. are used.

Births and deaths at the time of this printing (1962) recorded with the parents names.

Sincere effort has been made to secure accounts from reliable sources that the Zook descendants may be correctly informed concerning past family history.

Record of the first Zooks that came to America that the writer was able to find was Moritz Zug who was born in Germany a son of John Zug and grandson of Hans Zaag. Moritz, with two brothers Johannes and Christian, came to America on the ship Sir Francis and Elizabeth, in 1742 and settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, now Chester Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania. John Zug, oldest son of Moritz Zug, and first wife Magdalena (failed to find maiden name or name of second wife) came to Mifflin County, Penna., in 1793.

John Zug and Magdalene were the parents of John Zook who was born Feb. 12, 1770 in Chester County, Penna., and died in 1853 in his 84th year in Wayne County, Ohio. He was married to Catherine Weidman, parents of twelve children. In 1817 they left Mifflin County, Penna., and moved to Greene Township, Wayne County, Ohio, southeast of the Paradise Church (now in 1962 it is the Wooster Church of the Brethren). Indians were plentiful but peaceful and friendly. Wild animals were also numerous. He (John Zook) and his neighbor, Christian Lantz, who lived north of him, donated the plot of ground for the Paradise Cemetery, Wayne County, Ohio, where many of the early settlers were buried. John Zook and Catherine Weidman Zook were the parents of Gideon Zook. Gideon Zook was born October 9, 1803, died April 21, 1845 at the age of 42 y 6 m 12 d. He married Mary (Maria) Yoder on April 1825. She was born December 21, 1807, and died January 16, 1887 at the age of 77 y 26 d. Gideon died in his 42nd year leaving Mary (Maria) with 9 children.

Both Gideon Zook and Mary (Maria) Yoder were born in Pennsylvania and came to Wayne County, Ohio with their parents in 1818, and were married in Wayne County, Ohio. They are buried in the Paradise Cemetery, east of the Wooster Church of the Brethren along Smithville-Apple Creek road number 44, on old section near the center of south line.

Gideon and Mary (Maria) Yoder Zook were the parents of 9 children. Jacob (Ancestor of this history) was the eldest and 16 years of age when his father died at 42 yrs. of age.

The Gideon Zook farm is located on the Back Wooster-Orrville Rd., #23, about four miles east of Wooster and Six miles west of Orrville near Wooster Airport. It is owned by a great-great grandson Harvey D. Mumaw and occupied by his parents, Adam and Clara Zook Mumaw. Clara is the daughter of David S. Jacob Zook married Barbra Hostetler who was living with her parents, Christian and Elizabeth Yoder Hostetler on a neighboring farm on the back Wooster-Orrville Rd., #23, about 4 miles east of Wooster and 6 miles west of Orrville, near the Wooster Airport. They moved to a farm on the Smithville-Apple Creek road #44, half a mile south of road #23 about 3 miles east and south of their parents homes. They walked across fields from there to visit their parents. After they had two children they carried the youngest and pulled the oldest in a small wagon made by Jacob (their father). The writer remembers playing with this wagon made with two solid wooden wheels and wooden pins in wooden axle, to hold wheels in place. Jacob and Barbra Zook are buried in Paradise Cemetery, east of the Wooster Church of the Brethren along Smithville-Apple Creek rd. #44 in the old section near the center of south line, just west of their parents, Christian and Elizabeth Zook.

Past history tells us that Barbra Hostetler's ancestor is Jacob Hochstetler, who was born in the Highlands of Germany along the Rhine. It is not known whether he came to America from Alsace-Lorraine Palatinate or Rhine Provinces. He was born in 1704 and died in 1776 and came to America landing in Philadelphia, Penna., Sept. 1, 1736 on the ship Harle, taking about 50 days. Not being able to write, his name was written for him on the ship captain's list and the name was pronounced so that the writer thought it should be written Hofstedler. This list gives his age as 32 years. It is not known whether he left the old world as a direct result of persecution of his faith or whether he joined the steady line of immigrants that came to better their conditions in America. With him (Jacob Hochstetler) came his wife who probably was a Lorentz, and son John, about 3 years old and possibly a younger child. They settled in Brecknock Township, Lancaster co. Penna. about 1738 and later went to Bern Township

Lancaster Co., Penna. On Sept. 19, 1757, the family was attacked by Indians. The barking of the dog awakened Jacob Jr. and when he opened the door to investigate he was shot in the leg, but managed to close and lock the door before any Indians could enter. The boys wanted to shoot the Indians but the father protested, firmly believing in the doctrine of non-resistance, remaining faithful in the hour of sorest trial. The Indians set fire to the house. The family went to the basement and as the floor began burning through, kept it wet with apple cider. When nearly dawn they could no longer control the fire, they escaped through a small window in the side wall. They had some difficulty to help the mother out as she was a fleshy woman and also Jacob Jr. who was wounded in the leg. By the time they were all out they were surrounded with Indians who had all left one by one with the exception of a young Indian about 18 yrs. old who had lingered behind to gather peaches and saw them and gave the alarm. The mother Jacob Jr., and a young daughter were killed and Jacob, the father, and sons Joseph and Christian were taken captives. The sons were taken into Indian families as sons and the father, was sent out to help get meat for food. The father was never reconciled to Indian life and watched for a chance to escape which he finally did and with much difficulty reached the settlement from which he was taken. After peace was declared between the whites and the Indians about 1776, the sons were exchanged for Indian prisoners held by the whites. The sons and their captives always remained friends even though they did ~~not~~ return to their own people.

Jacob Hochstetler and wife, who was thought to have been a Miss Lorentz were the parents of Joseph Hostetler. Jacob's widow at the time of his death was named Ann (maiden name not known.)

Joseph Hostetler, b. about Aug. 1742 and married first Anna Blank, Oct. 4, 1751 and were the parents of John Hostetler, b. in Mifflin Co. Pa. Joseph married secondly Barbara Kauffman.
